

Rattler Round Up XIV 5/17/8

Prize Money Rules

There will be six prizes of $250 each to be distributed as follows:

(A) Two recipients will be selected by random draw (without replacement) from all competitors in the competition (shiai & kata) divisions. There will be one entry for each competitor regardless of the number of divisions the competitor enters.

(B) One recipient will be selected at random from the kata competitors. There will be one entry for each individual competitor regardless of the number of kata the competitor completes, subject to the requirement that to be eligible, the competitor must complete at least one full kata.

(C) There will be one recipient selected from all of the "junior" (under 17 years of age) division winners (gold medalists). The draw for the division whose winner receives the award will be conducted at the conclusion of the "junior" division's competition.

(D) There will be one recipient selected from all of the "adult" (17 years of age and over, masters included) division winners (gold medalists). The draw for the division whose winner receives the award will be conducted at the conclusion of the "adult" division's competition. For this purpose, "adult" divisions are those whose competitors competing in 17 years of age or older -- including all youth (17-21), senior and masters divisions.

(E) There will be one recipient club, with the greatest number of competitors registered in the tournament, selected from all of the clubs with competitors that attend the tournament.

Prizes will be distributed as checks drawn on the Tomodachi bank account. Winners must be present at the drawing to be eligible for the prize. If the competitor has left the tournament site, a replacement winner will be selected. Registered competitors from all clubs, including Tomodachi, are eligible for prizes, if they meet the above conditions. It is possible that a competitor could win prizes in more than one category.
